Covering an out and back from Birchington all the way to the two thousand year old Reculver towers, completing 4 x 6.55 mile laps gave a nice flat marathon. Shame it was -5 degrees and foggy!

Organisers went all out this year to ensure there was snow and everything for their Christmas Run. It was pretty chilly as well though, so the Santa suits were good to keep away the cold in part.

Ankle deep mud, hills and streams crammed into this popular 3 mile race. Love the fact that over 750+ can put the mince pies down for long enough to do this on Boxing Day!
